

NOTED LECTURER TO SPEAK HERE JUNE 16.

An intellectual treat is said to be in store for the people of Paris, when David Goldstein, author, Knights of Columbus lecturer and debater, delivers his address on "Bolshevism: What It Is; The Remedy For It."

Everybody is invited to this gathering at the Court House, on Wednesday night, June 16, 8:00 p. m.

Admission to the lecture is free to the public. Seats have been reserved for world war veterans, who are at present taking a decidedly keen interest in the world's greatest problem. The lecture of Mr. Goldstein will be of special interest to them.

The Knights of Columbus announce that the distinguished lecturer's address is not a tirade against the "Reds," but rather a constructive presentation of the subject, showing what this latest manifestation of Socialism in its brand-new Russian dress really is. Mr. Goldstein's appeal is to lovers of God and Country, to those who stand for civil law and ordered liberty.

The address will be followed by a quizzing period, when the speaker will answer questions relating to any phase of the subject whether of the Bolshevism in Russia or of that propaganda in our own country.

Mr. Goldstein is well qualified to speak on the subject of Socialism, Communism, Bolshevism, since he was a leader in the Socialist movement of Massachusetts some twenty years ago, having been the first candidate of that party for Mayor in his home city, Boston. His resignation from the Socialist movement, after three years' effort within the party to reform the organization, caused a sensation at the time, and it is considered the prime factor in the decline of its vote in the Old Bay State, causing the defeat of two Mayors, the three Socialist members of the Legislature, and several aldermen and councilmen. It also caused the Socialist vote to be quickly reduced to one-quarter of its strength when he quit the movement. From that day to this the Socialist vote has been kept at a low ebb in Massachusetts.

"David Goldstein, who is a staunch defender of conservative trades unionism, has struck some hard blows against Socialism upon the floor of labor conventions. When a delegate to the Massachusetts State Convention of the American Federation of Labor at Pittsfield, Mr. Goldstein put a quietus upon Socialist propaganda at these annual meetings, by introducing a set of resolutions which concluded with the demand, 'We hereby denounce as detrimental to our progress, as destructive to our good fame, as disruptive of those personal and civic virtues which it is our duty to cultivate, any attitude of sympathy towards Socialist propaganda within our ranks.' (This was the first positive set of resolutions presented in an American Trade Union convention against the 'Reds'.)"

The following editorial from The Boston Transcript shows the importance of the move made:

"The Socialist propagandists have no love for unionism as such; their connection with it is for the sole purpose, often frankly avowed, of capturing the labor movement and converting it into a revolutionary crusade against the existing social and industrial order. By adopting Mr. Goldstein's resolution denouncing this propaganda 'as intellectually unsound, impractical from an economic standpoint, and demoralizing to the general well-being of society, the State Federation of Labor renders a public service which should be frankly acknowledged.'"

Mr. Goldstein stands for that one hundred per cent Americanism that was demonstrated in the practical and far-reaching aid given to our government by the Knights of Columbus in the World War, overseas and at home, and in the reconstruction program of this organization during the present period of readjustment.

Speaking of Mr. Goldstein's address in Troy, N. Y. The Record declared his defense of American institutions to be "one of the most remarkable demonstrations of a patriotic nature in the history of Troy from the earliest days down to the present time."

The meeting will be held in the Circuit Court room on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Admission will be free to all, no collections will be taken up, and all questions will be answered frankly and courteously. (11-21)

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

While working in a field near Millersburg last week Wm. Langfeld took refuge under a tree during a severe thunder and lightning storm. Lightning struck the tree under which Langfeld was standing, passed into his body, going down his right side, tearing the clothes from his body and rendering him unconscious. When consciousness returned Langfeld's condition was discovered by fellow-workmen. He was removed to a nearby house, where a physician, who was called in, discovered that the shock had caused paralysis in Langfeld's side, which condition still obtains.

"THAT'S WHAT THEY ALL SAY."

"Saturday was the biggest day we ever experienced in our business since we opened—the big advertisement in THE NEWS surely did the work."

The above was addressed to a NEWS man last week by the head of one of the leading shoe firms when asked what kind of a sale he had had. It pays to advertise—especially in THE BOURBON NEWS.

BOY HAS NARROW ESCAPE

William Frye, a young boy residing with his parents, on Houston avenue, had a narrow escape from drowning near the Paris Milling plant Wednesday afternoon. Young Frye had been fishing at that point, started to walk across the dam, despite the warning from his companions that it was too dangerous to attempt. When a short distance out from the end of the dam, the boy slipped on the slimy surface and fell into the mill pond, where the current was swift and strong. His cries brought help from three companions, Robert McNamara, Malcolm Waterfield and Howard Hynes, who went to his rescue. The boys succeeded in towing the almost unconscious lad to a log. Employees of the mill threw them a rope and brought them to land. Young Frye soon recovered, but little the worse for his experience.

RELIEF FROM MARTIAL TIES

According to his petition they were married in Paris, Ky., in July, 1916, when his wife abandoned him and has not lived with him since. Wm. H. Townsend is attorney for the plaintiff.

NEW MOVIE HOUSE TO BE CONSTRUCTED.

The old building at the corner of Main and Eighth streets is to be torn away soon and converted into a modern, up-to-date moving picture house. The plans and specifications have been completed and received here by the purchasers of the property, J. M. Alverson, George W. Stuart and John M. Stuart. Work on the new structure will begin about June 15, or as soon as the grass seed harvest is over.

The plans show a modernly equipped movie house, with a seating capacity of five hundred, and will have two side exits, capable of emptying the house in a short space of time. The main entrance will be from Main street. The house, which will be named, "The Marigold," will be equipped with the latest improved type of motion picture projecting machines and screen, together with all the furnishings that go to make up a cozy theatre. The house is to be completed in four months, at an approximate cost of $40,000.
